WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

on the Holy Rosary

- “The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary.” - St. Francis de Sales.
- “Never will anyone who says his Rosary every day become a formal heretic or be led astray by the devil.” - St. Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort.
- “The Rosary is the most beautiful and the most rich in graces of all prayers; it is the prayer that touches most the Heart of the Mother of God...and if you wish peace to reign in your homes, recite the family Rosary.” - Pope St. Pius X.
- “If there were one million families praying the Rosary every day, the entire world would be saved.” - Pope St. Pius X.
- “Those who say the Rosary daily and wear the Brown Scapular and who do a little more, will go straight to Heaven.” - St. Alphonsus Liguori.

Why Pray the Rosary?

THE ROSARY is one of the greatest and most powerful devotions in the Catholic Church. It was in fact our Lady that gave the Rosary to St. Dominic, who after three days of intense prayer and fasting had a vision in which our Lady gave him the Rosary describing it as "the weapon the Blessed Trinity wants to use to reform the world." The Rosary was then preached by St. Dominic to successfully convert the heretics of his day by explaining to them the mysteries of the faith. In response, Pope Leo XIII observed, "Thanks to this new method of prayer... piety, faith, and union began to return; and the project and devices of the heretics to fall to pieces."

The Pontiff continued, "The efficacy and power of this devotion was also wondrously exhibited in the sixteenth century, when the vast forces of the Turks threatened to impose on nearly the whole of Europe the yoke of superstition and barbarism. At that time the Supreme Pontiff, St. Pius V, after rousing the sentiment of a common defense among all the Christian princes, strove, above all, with the greatest zeal, to obtain for Christendom the favor of the most powerful Mother of God. So noble an example offered to heaven and earth in those times rallied around him all the minds and hearts of the age. ... Those who were unable to take part as warriors in defense of the faith, formed a pious band of supplicants, who called on Mary, and unitedly saluted her again and again in the words of the Rosary, imploring her to grant the victory to their companions engaged in battle. Our Sovereign Lady did grant her aid; for in the naval battle...the Christian fleet gained a magnificent victory, with no great loss to itself....And it was to preserve the memory of this great boon thus granted, that the same Most Holy Pontiff desired that a feast in honor of Our Lady of Victories should celebrate the anniversary of so memorable a struggle, the feast which Gregory XIII. dedicated under the title of 'The Holy Rosary.'"

The Blessed Mother appeared throughout recent centuries promoting the recitation of her Rosary. She appeared to St. Bernadette at Lourdes in 1858 bearing a golden Rosary in her hand. In all 18 of those apparitions, Our Lady prayed the Rosary along with St. Bernadette, saying the prayers other than those directed to herself. Our Lady of Fatima, who appeared in 1917 to three shepherd children, was also holding a Rosary. She described herself as "the Lady of the Rosary" and urged all people to pray the Rosary daily for the conversion of sinners and to bring peace to the world.

On the necessity and benefits of praying the Rosary, Pope Leo XIII wrote over the course of fifteen years (1883-1898) twelve encyclicals and five apostolic letters. He famously wrote "The Rosary is the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life. It is the remedy for all our evils, the root of all our blessings. There is no more excellent way of praying."

"If you wish peace to reign in your homes, recite the family Rosary." – Pope Saint Pius X

"The Rosary is a powerful weapon to put the demons to flight and to keep oneself from sin....If you desire peace in your hearts, in your homes, and in your country, assemble each evening to recite the Rosary. Let not even one day pass without saying it, no matter how burdened you may be with many cares and labors." – Pope Pius XI

"There is no surer means of calling down God's blessings upon the family than the daily recitation of the Rosary." – Pope Pius XII

The Rosary is a timeless treasure through which the faithful receive great graces and grow closer to God through meditation on the mysteries. The Church has repeatedly recommended to all the faithful this most hallowed prayer through countless popes and Saints throughout the ages. A plenary indulgence has also been attached to "the recitation of the Marian Rosary in a church or public oratory or in a family group, a religious Community or pious Association"; a partial indulgence is granted in other circumstances.

We also invite you to take our booklet entitled The Traditional Latin Mass, which is very informative.
